

Open communication is just as important the the deaf community as to the hearing community. Please make the necessary changes to assure open telecommunication accessibility to all deaf consumers.